

K2 STORAGE SYSTEMS

<https://k2storagesystems.pl/en/job/logistics-specialist/>

Logistics Specialist

Description

k2storagesystems is looking for an experienced and responsible logistics specialist who will be responsible for the effective management of logistics processes in our company.

Responsibilities

Planning, organizing and monitoring the entire logistics process, including delivery, storage, transportation and distribution.

Optimization of the supply chain, to ensure smooth processes and minimize costs.

Warehouse management: controlling inventory levels, organizing warehouse space, ensuring proper storage conditions.

Collaborate with suppliers, carriers and other business partners to ensure timely and efficient delivery of orders.

Analyzing logistics data and preparing reports on the efficiency of logistics processes and proposals for improvements.

Monitoring and implementing health and safety procedures in the logistics area.

Qualifications

Higher education (preferred majors related to logistics, transportation, management).

Work experience in a similar position.

Knowledge of issues related to supply chain management and logistics.

Ability to work in a team and excellent communication skills.

Knowledge of English (spoken and written) will be an added advantage.

Benefits

Stable employment in a company with an established position in the market.

Opportunity for professional development and qualification improvement through participation in training and courses.

Work in a dynamic team, where initiative and independence of action are appreciated.

Competitive salary and a package of non-wage benefits.

Hiring organization

k2storagesystems.pl

Workplace

Remote work possible

Work Hours

9-15

Date posted

13 June 2024